By the King,

A PROCLAMATION,

GEORGE R.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in the First Year of the Reign of our Royal Predeceſſor King Henry the Seventh, (Intituled, An Act for ſhewing the Penalty for Hunting in the Night, or with Diſguiſing) reciting, That foraſmuch as before that Time divers Ordinances and Statutes had been made in divers Parliaments for the Puniſhment of inordinate and unlawful Huntings in Foreſts, Parks, and Warrens, within this Realm: Notwithſtanding which Statutes and Ordinances, divers Perſons in great Numbers, ſome with painted Faces, ſome with Viſors, and otherwiſe diſguiſed, to the Intent they ſhould not be known, riotouſly, and in manner of War arrayed, had oftentimes then of late hunted as well by Night as by Day, in divers Foreſts, Parks, and Warrens, in divers Places of this Realm, by Colour whereof had enſued great and heinous Rebellions, Inſurrections, Riots, Robberies, Murders, and other Inconveniencies; which Offences, in certain Caſes in the ſaid Act ſpecified, are thereby declared to be Felony; and that if any Perſon or Perſons ſhould thereafter be Convict of any ſuch Huntings with painted Faces, Viſors, or otherwiſe diſguiſed, to the Intent they ſhould not be known, or of unlawful Hunting in time of Night, that then the ſame Perſon or Perſons ſo Convict, ſhould have like Puniſhment, as he or they ſhould have, if he or they were Convict of Felony: And whereas we have received Information upon Oath, that, in Defiance of the Act before recited, and of ſeveral other Statutes and the Laws of this Realm, which provide ſevere Puniſhment for ſuch Offenders, great Numbers of diſorderly and ill-deſigning Perſons, having of late aſſociated themſelves under the Name of Blacks, and being armed with Swords, Fire-Arms, and other offenſive Weapons, to the great Terror of our Subjects within the Counties of Berks and Southampton, and other Places, ſeveral of them in diſguiſed Habits, with their Faces blacked, have entred into our Foreſts, broke into the Parks and incloſed Grounds of ſeveral of our good Subjects, and killed and carried away Deer, ſome belonging to ourſelves, and ſeveral to our ſaid Subjects; that ſome of the ſaid Perſons have reſcued, by open Force, Offenders from the Conſtables, into whoſe Hands they have been committed by our Juſtices of the Peace, and have frequently ſent menacing Letters to Gentlemen, Owners of Parks, and to their Keepers, demanding Veniſon and Money to be ſent them to certain Places therein appointed, and threatning, in caſe of Failure of Performance of their illegal Demands, to murder the Perſons to whom they ſent ſuch Letters, or to burn their Houſes, Barns, and Hay-Stacks; and that ſome of them have actually aſſaulted ſeveral Perſons with the utmoſt Violence, ſhot at them in their Houſes, maimed their Horſes and Cattle, broke down their Gates and Fences, and cut down Avenues, Plantations, and Heads of Fiſh-Ponds, and robbed them of the Fiſh: To the Intent therefore that a ſpeedy and effectual Stop may be put to all ſuch outragious Practices, we have thought fit, by and with the Advice of our Privy-Council, to iſſue this our Royal Proclamation, hereby ſtrictly charging and commanding all our Officers and Miniſters whatſoever, and all other Perſons whom it may concern, to take Care, that the Laws againſt ſuch illegal Practices be put in Execution with the utmoſt Rigour: And we do hereby Charge and and Require all our loving Subjects, of what Degree or Condition ſoever, not to Aid, Aſſiſt, Harbour, or Protect any ſuch Offenders, but on the contrary to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to oppoſe and reſiſt all Perſons concerned in ſuch unlawful Attempts, and to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to Diſcover, Seize, Apprehend, and bring before the next Magiſtrate or Miniſter of Juſtice, all Perſon or Perſons, that are or ſhall be Guilty of any the Offences aforeſaid. And for the Encouragement of all Perſons to be diligent and careful in endeavouring to diſcover and apprehend all the Offenders abovementioned, we do Promiſe and Declare, That whoſoever ſhall Diſcover and Apprehend any of the Offenders aforeſaid, or who ſhall Diſcover and Apprehend any Perſon or Perſons, who at any time hereafter ſhall commit the like Offences, in manner as aforeſaid, or their Aiders or Abettors, ſo as ſuch Perſon or Perſons be convicted of the ſame Offences, ſhall have and receive, for every one of them ſo apprehended and taken, and convicted as aforeſaid, the Sum of One Hundred Pounds Sterling; which ſaid Sum of One Hundred Pounds for every one of them, the Commiſſioners of our Treaſury are hereby required and directed to pay accordingly: And if ſuch Perſon ſo diſcovering and apprehending, ſhall have been an Accomplice with any of the ſaid Offenders, and by Reaſon thereof ſtands in Need of our moſt gracious Pardon, we do hereby further declare, That ſuch Perſon ſhall have our moſt gracious Pardon. And to the End that none of our Loving Subjects may through Ignorance ſubject themſelves to Proſecutions, we do hereby give Notice, That all Perſons whatſoever, who ſhall aid and abet, or encourage any of the ſaid Offenders in the ſaid Offences, or ſhall harbour, protect, or conceal them, in order to prevent their being brought to Juſtice, will thereby make themſelves Partakers of their Crimes, and that in ſuch Caſes, they ſhall be proſecuted with the utmoſt Severity of Law.

Given at our Court at St. James's, the Second Day of February, in the Ninth Year of our Reign.

God ſave the KING.

Paris, Feb. 10. N. S. On Sunday laſt the King being at Maſs in the Chappel of Verſailles, was taken ill, and was carried to his Apartment; but his Phyſicians having uſed proper Means, his Majeſty is now ſo well recovered, that he is expected here in a few Days, in order to hold his Seat of Juſtice in the Parliament of Paris for declaring his Majority.

Hague, Feb. 9. N. S. M. de Chambery, the French Secretary here, has notified to the States General, that a late Arrêt Publiſhed at Paris, forbidding the Importation into France of Engliſh Lead melted in this Country, has been ſuppreſſed according to their Deſire, and that their Merchants are at Liberty to act therein as formerly. The ſaid French Secretary has obtained the Reſtitution of three Parts of the Sum to which the Sale amounted of the French Ship retaken from the Algerines by M. Sommelſdyck two Years ago; the other Part is adjudged to the Chamber of Admiralty of Amſterdam, for contingent Charges. General Hompeſch has written from Berlin to the States, for their Leave to come hither upon his private Affairs, during the Abſence of the King of Pruſſia, who it is ſaid deſigns for Cleves in the Spring. M. Hop ſets out to Morrow for Paris.

St. James's, Feb. 4. An humble Addreſs of the High-Sheriff, Juſtices of the Peace, Grand Jury, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Freeholders of the County of Clare, aſſembled at a General Seſſions of the Peace held for the ſaid County, on the 15th of January 1722-3, having been tranſmitted from Ireland to his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Lieutenant of that Kingdom, has by him been preſented to His Majeſty; who was pleaſed to receive it very graciouſly.

By the Lords Juſtices and Council of Ireland,

A PROCLAMATION.

Will. Dublin, Shannon, Wm. Conolly.

WHEREAS by an Act of Parliament made in this Kingdom, in the Sixth Year of Her late Majeſty's Reign, intituled, An Act for the more effectual preventing the taking away and marrying Children againſt the Wills of their Parents and Guardians, It is enacted, 'That if 'any Maid or Woman be taken or carried a'way by Force againſt her Conſent, and after 'be married or defiled, by ſuch Perſon or Per'ſons who carried her away, or by any other 'Perſon, by his or their Aſſent or Procure'ment, whether ſuch Marriage or Defilement 'be with or without the Conſent of ſuch Maid 'or Woman ſo carried away by Force and a'gainſt her Will, every ſuch Perſon ſo mar'rying or defiling ſuch Maid or Woman, and 'the Aiders and Procurers of ſuch forcible ta'king away of ſuch Maid or Woman; and all as 'well Principals as Acceſſaries before ſuch Fact committed, ſhall be deemed and adjudged to be Felons, and ſhall ſuffer Pains of Death, without Benefit of Clergy, any former Law to the contrary thereof notwithſtanding.

'committed,

And whereas divers looſe and profligate Perſons, of little or no Fortunes, in order to advance themſelves by ſuch Marriages, have, notwithſtanding the Penalties in the ſaid Act mentioned, in ſeveral Parts of this Kingdom of late forcibly taken away ſeveral Maidens and Women, and obliged them to marry.

And whereas We have received Information on Oath, That Mary Dowdall, Daughter and Heir of Stephen Dowdall, late of Gallſtown, in the County of Meath, Gent. deceaſed, a Perſon entitled to a conſiderable Fortune, on the Fifth of this Inſtant January, being prevailed on by Sir Andrew Aylmer of Ballrath, in the ſaid County, Baronet, her near Relation and Neighbour, under Pretence of an Invitation to her and ſome of her Friends to Dine at his Houſe at Ballrath aforeſaid, was about Nine that Night, by the Procurement and Contrivance of the ſaid Sir Andrew Alymer, forcibly and againſt her Conſent carried away from thence by Garret Darcy of the Rath of Greenoge, Gent. John Ambroſe and Garret Ambroſe, Sons of William Ambroſe of the County of Dublin, Gent. Thomas Ledwitch of Ballrath aforeſaid Miller, William Mullan, Nicholas Maccan, and Roſe Wade alias Farrell, Servants of the ſaid Sir Andrew Aylmer, who bing joined on the Road at Mountown in the County of Meath aforeſaid, by Nicholas Bath Uncle to the ſaid Garret Darcy, and one Nugent alias Sheridan, a Popiſh Prieſt, brought the ſaid Mary Dowdall by Force to Dunmucky in the County of Killdare, and there compelled her to marry the ſaid Garret Darcy, out of whoſe Hands ſhe hath been ſince reſcued, and that the ſaid Marriage was Solemnized by the ſaid Nugent alias Sheridan.

And whereas the ſaid ſeveral Perſons have ſince abſconded and concealed themſelves ſo as they cannot be apprehended or taken.

We the Lords Juſtices and Council having a juſt Abhorrence of ſuch barbarous and illegal Practices, and being deſirous, that the ſaid Statute be ſtrictly put in Execution, and that due Encouragement may be given for the apprehending of the ſaid Perſons, in order that they may be brought to condign Puniſhment for ſuch their Offences, do by this our Proclamation Publiſh and Declare, that we will give the neceſſary Orders for the Payment to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall on or before the Firſt Day of December next enſuing the date of this our Proclamation, take and apprehend the ſaid Sir Andrew Aylmer, and the ſaid Garret Darcy, or either of them, ſo as they or either of them may be legally convicted of ſuch Offence, for each of the ſaid Perſons ſo taken and convicted the Sum of Two Hundred Pounds; and alſo to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall within the time aforeſaid take and apprehend the ſaid John Ambroſe and Nugent, alias Sheridan, or either of them, ſo as they or either of them may be legally Convicted, for each of the ſaid Perſons ſo taken and Convicted the Sum of Fifty Pounds; And alſo to ſuch Perſon or Perſons as ſhall within the Time aforeſaid take and apprehend them the ſaid Garret Ambroſe, Thomas Ledwitch, William Mullan, Nicholas Maccan, Roſe Wade alias Farrell, and the ſaid Nicholas Bath, or any of them, ſo as they or any of them may be legally Convicted, for each of the ſaid Perſons ſo taken and Convicted, the Sum of Twenty Pounds.

And in Caſe the ſaid Perſons charged with the ſaid Fact, or any of them, other than and except the ſaid Sir Andrew Aylmer, Garret Darcy and John Ambroſe, ſhall take and apprehend them the ſaid Sir Andrew Aylmer, Garret Darcy and John Ambroſe, or any of them, ſo as they or any of them be legally convicted of the ſaid Offence, ſuch Perſon and Perſons, over and above the Reward hereby promiſed, ſhall have and receive His Majeſty's moſt Gracious Pardon for the ſaid Offence.

And we do hereby ſtrictly charge and command all Mayors, Sheriffs, Juſtices of the Peace, and other Magiſtrates and Officers Civil and Military in this Kingdom, and all other His Majeſty's loving Subjects, to uſe their utmoſt Diligence in taking and ſecuring the Perſons herein before mentioned, as they ſhall anſwer the contrary at their Peril.

Given at the Council-Chamber in Dublin, the Twenty Firſt Day of January, 1722.
